2	c. Issues for trial:
3	i. Claims
5	 Plaintiff has two claims of failure to provide reasonable accommodations under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which resulted in his termination.
6	a. Plaintiff claims that it would not have been an undue hardship for
7	Defendant to allow him to use an arial lift platform to lift him to and from the cab of a crane.
8	b. Plaintiff claims that Defendant failed to engage in interactive discussions with him regarding several positions in the forklift operator category that
9	were available and to which he should have been reassigned.
10	ii. Defenses
11 12	 Plaintiff's proposed accommodation to use an arial lift to ascent to the crane cab would constitute an undue hardship to Defendant.
13	Plaintiff's proposed accommodation to use an arial lift to ascend to the crane cab would constitute a direct threat.
14 15	3. Plaintiff failed to mitigate his damages, if any.
16	iii. Relief
17	 Damages and reasonable attorney's fees.
18	2. Equitable relief in the form of an injunction requiring Defendant to reinstate
19	Plaintiff's employment and to accommodate Plaintiff as required. d. Estimated length of trial: 5 days (excluding jury selection)
20	e. Timed trial: total length of five days (excluding jury selection).
21 22	f. COVID-19 protocol: Court does not have a mandatory mask mandate—jurors are permitted to make individual choices about wearing a mask.
23	2. Motions in Limine
24

1	a. The parties have not filed any motions in limine.
2	3. Jury Selection
3	a. Selection by video (Zoom) (remainder of trial in-person)

6	d. Voir dire
7	i. See Appendix A below for Court's general questions.
8	ii. Time allowed for attorney questioning: 20 minutes
9	iii. The court will not allow questions which:
10	1. Have already been asked,
11	2. Anticipate instructions on the law which have not yet been given,
12	3. Ask a juror to speculate or comment on his/her verdict if certain facts are
13	proved,
14	4. Are in substance arguments of the case,
15	5. Solicit a juror's opinion as to the law or legal terms,
16	6. Are clearly irrelevant and/or seek to embarrass, or establish rapport with, a juror, or
17	7. Are grossly unfair or embarrassing to the juror, and where the average juror cannot know the answer.
18
19	e. Challenges for cause following voir dire and outside the presence of the jury
20	f. 3 preemptory challenges for each side.
21	g. Seating during voir dire – fully remote.

APPENDIX A

Proposed General Voir Dire Questions – (Note: the Court reserves the right to modify each question as necessary during voir dire.)

- 1. This trial is expected to last for six days. We will start each day at 9:00 a.m. and finish no later than 4:30 p.m. each day. We will have a morning break of fifteen minutes, a lunch break of an hour and a half, and an afternoon break of fifteen minutes. At the end of the sixth day, there is no time limit on the amount of time that the jury may deliberate. Is there any prospective juror who cannot be here for the anticipated duration of the trial? (explain hardship)
- 2. As you are all aware, we are still in the COVID-19 pandemic. [Mask policy for jurors, lawyers, courtroom, deliberation.] Is there any prospective juror who has any concerns regarding this policy, or who would not feel comfortable sitting for trial and deliberations with this policy in place?
- 3. Is there any health issue, physical problem, or persistent physical aggravation or other problem that would make it difficult for you to sit as a juror? (bad back, migraines, etc.)
- 4. Scott Johnson is the Plaintiff in this case. The Defendant is Carlos Del Toro, Secretary of the Department of the Navy, who the law requires to be named as the defendant. Mr. Johnson was a civilian employee at the Puget Sound Naval Shipyard from 2003 until his termination on October 13, 2020. Mr. Johnson claims that the Navy denied him a reasonable accommodation after being injured, leading to his termination for medical inability to do his job. The Navy denies Mr. Johnson's claims. The Navy also asserts defenses that Mr. Johnson posed a direct threat to himself and others, and that granting the accommodations at issue in this case would have placed an undue hardship on the Navy. Have any of you heard or read anything about this case?
- 5. Is there anything about the nature of this case that would cause any prospective juror to start into the trial with any bias or prejudice, either one way or another?
- 6. Does anyone know the Plaintiff or his attorneys or law firm, or know anyone who works for the Plaintiff's law firm?
- 7. Does anyone know of the Defendant or its attorneys or law firm, or anyone who works for the Defendant or its law firm?
- 8. I will now ask counsel for the Plaintiff to list all of the witnesses that are expected to be called to testify. Please raise your card if you believe that you know any of these witnesses. [Counsel reads names.]

- a. If so, were you or your family member the plaintiff or defendant?
- b. Was there anything about the experience that would make you more likely to believe the plaintiff or defendant?
- 39. Does anyone feel that they cannot be fair and impartial because the defendant is the U.S. Navy?
- 40. Does every juror understand that the United States Government, including the U.S. Navy, is entitled to a fair and impartial hearing just like an individual defendant?
- 41. Is there anything about the case that makes any one of you start off favoring one side or another?
